To Whom It May Concern

This is to certify that we have successfully availed next-generation sequencing (NGS) services from Genomic Valley Bharat Pvt. Ltd. for our research project involving whole genome sequencing of CHK and Dengue viruses.

Genomic Valley Bharat Pvt. Ltd. provided comprehensive end-to-end onsite support throughout the entire project, including conceptualization, kit selection, library preparation, sequencing execution, and analysis. Their team actively assisted in project formulation, experimental planning, and technical consultation, ensuring that the study design aligned with our research objectives.

The services rendered by Genomic Valley were carried out with high scientific rigor and within the agreed timelines. The sequencing quality, data integrity, and analytical outputs met the expected standards, and project deliverables were shared in a well-structured and timely manner.

We especially appreciate the professionalism, technical expertise, responsiveness, and consistent support extended by the Genomic Valley team during the course of the project. Their collaborative approach significantly contributed to the successful completion of our research work.

We highly recommend Genomic Valley Bharat Pvt. Ltd. for advanced genomics and sequencing services and look forward to future collaborations.
